Mag. No. 22-10284

STATE OF NEW JERSEY :

ss.

COUNTY OF ESSEX :

Mary Jo Corkery, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I. Introduction

a. Agent-1 observed a large room in the basement of Subject Premises-1. On one side of the wall was a large rack of clothes hangers with a shelving unit on top of the hangers. On top of the shelving unit were two bags each containing large amounts of cash, potentially approximately $100,000 per bag.

<sup>1</sup> I understand that the agents executing the search have not opened or reviewed the contents of the Subject Documents.

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

[REDACTED]

19. Based on my conversations with other law enforcement personnel and my review of law enforcement reports, I have learned that in or about August 2019, i.e., shortly after the plea and sentencing described above,<sup>6</sup> the CS met with [REDACTED] and the following conversation, which was consensually recorded by the CS at the direction of law enforcement, occurred, in substance and in part:

a. [REDACTED] told the CS that Hana arranged for Arslanian to receive a ring and a Mercedes automobile in exchange for Menendez's assistance in resolving criminal charges for insurance fraud pending against an American male.<sup>7</sup>

b. [REDACTED] discussed how the criminal case "needed a push," and "without" the push the man "would have gotten three years imprisonment," but the "push made the man avoid the three years."

c. [REDACTED] further told the CS that the American male gave Hana $150,000 and that Hana then purchased the engagement ring for Menendez's girlfriend, along with a car, and kept the remaining money for himself. As detailed further below, I understand that the "American male" is a reference to Parra and the reference to Menendez's girlfriend is a reference to Arslanian.

[REDACTED]

---

<sup>6</sup> It appears, based on the investigation, that [REDACTED] and Hana had a financial dispute, possibly prior to this conversation.

<sup>7</sup> These communications took place mainly in Arabic, and the description of them is based on a review of a draft summary and translation, subject to revision.
